Within KS1 the children learn through units within the same four themes and have a dedicated time to discretely teach each strand:

Primary Themes	Computing system and networks	Programming	Data & information	Creating Media
Strands	Computing systems Computing networks	Programming Algorithms Design and development	Data and information	Creating media Design and development
	Effective use of tools
	Impact of technology
	Safety and security			